

LC-SHR5 - SMITH-HALF RACK

PRODUCT FEATURES

Designed for versatility, this Smith-Half Rack includes integrated safety stoppers, built-in chinning bar, Olympic bar holder and tons of weight plate storage.

The Legion SHR5 Centurion Smith-Half Rack is a free-weight half rack combined with a self-aligning linear bearing Smith Press system in one machine. Designed for versatility, the SHR5 Centurion Smith-Half Rack features a 7-degree slant Smith system with oversized aluminum bar for easy gripping, built-in plate storage and a welded pull-up station. These features, combined with a free-weight half rack, makes the SHR5 perfect for the serious lifter.

The Legion SHR5 Centurion Smith-Half Rack delivers commercial-grade strength and quality. Heavy duty steel construction coupled with great quality create a recipe for a confidence inspiring, smooth operating machine. And, the SHR5 includes integrated safety stoppers, built-in chinning bar, multi-grip pullup handles, dip handles, Olympic bar holder and tons of weight plate storage.
